Open to freshmen, sophomores and juniors. Post-seminar internships available in some locations.

Development, Genocide and Nature Conservation in Namibia: History, Society and Environment in Local and Global Contexts
Windhoek, Namibia
Emmanuel Kreike, Professor of History
June 8 – July 17, 2015

Vienna: Birthplace of Psychoanalysis, Modernism and World War I
Vienna, Austria
Ruben Gallo, Walter S. Carpenter, Jr., Professor in Language, Literature and Civilization of Spain
June 8 – July 17, 2015

Thessaloniki: 2,000 Years of a City in History
Thessaloniki, Greece
Molly Greene, Professor of History and Hellenic Studies
June 8 – July 17, 2015

Vision and Insight in Classic Japan
Kyoto, Japan
Thomas Hare, William Sauter LaPorte ’28 Professor in Regional Studies
June 8 – July 17, 2015

Images in Transition: Visual Culture in Chile’s Transition to Democracy
Santiago, Chile
Javier Guerrero, Assistant Professor of Spanish and Portuguese Languages and Cultures
June 15 – July 24, 2015

Memory, Democracy and Public Culture: Berlin and Its Pasts
Berlin, Germany
Jan-Werner Mueller, Professor of Politics
June 22 – July 31, 2015

Global Seminars are offered by PIIRS in conjunction with the Office of International Programs.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Monday, February 9, 2015
www.princeton.edu/piirs/global-seminars

Follow us on: Facebook Twitter